

The Department of Psychology

Presents

Mental Health Clinicians Panel

Date: Friday, March 25, 2016
Time: 11:30 AM – 1:00 PM
Location: Room 120 Psychology Building

Speakers Bio:

Kelle Sajdak, M.A., LPS – Ms. Sajdak received her Bachelor's degree from Alma College in Psychology in 2007 and later pursued her Master's degree in Professional Counseling at Central Michigan University, graduating in 2011. Kelle worked as an Outpatient Therapist for Community Mental Health in Big Rapids for two years providing services for both families and children. Currently, Kelle is an employee at Michigan State University working as a Counselor in the Counseling Center and has been there for two and a half years. She also works part time at Therapy Today, a private practice providing services to both college students and the surrounding community.

Amy Shelton, M.A., LPC, CRC – Ms. Shelton is a graduate of Michigan State University, earning a Bachelor's Degree in Social Work in 1999, and a Master's Degree in Rehabilitation Counseling in 2001. Ms. Shelton, is an expert in the area of vocational rehabilitation, assessment of vocational readiness and potential, career development, return to work planning following health or work injury, work adjustment counseling, cases where employment is in jeopardy due to physical or mental health conditions, vocational case management and care coordination to facilitate return to work, disability management, and forensic evaluation of current employment access and wage earning ability.

Noah Tobes – Noah Tobes is a Graduate Student at the University of Michigan in the School of Social Work. His Bachelor's in Psychology was done at Michigan State University.

STUDENT REGISTRATION: <http://goo.gl/forms/CCXh7cpkQC>