Klump Lab RA Recruitment

Dr. Kelly Klump's Hormones and Behavior lab is currently seeking volunteer research assistants. The lab examines developmental differences in genetic, environmental, and neurobiological influences on behaviors. Dr. Klump's lab is still running during the COVID-19 pandemic, RAs in the lab will have the unique opportunity to gain research experience remotely! If you are interested in more information about the lab, you can visit their website and view this flyer. If you are interested in being a volunteer RA, please contact the Project Coordinator, Libby Ryan (leeeliz3@msu.edu).

Undergraduate Research Ambassador Program

The Undergraduate Research Office is seeking applications for the 2022-23 Undergraduate Research (UR) Ambassador Program. UR Ambassadors are current undergraduate students engaged in research or creative activity in different fields of study across campus. UR Ambassadors facilitate workshops, assist at UURAF, and represent the Undergraduate Research Office at events and programs throughout the academic year. The deadline to apply is Wednesday, April 13, 2022 at 11:59 PM EST. The application process has two rounds: (1) an online application form through Handshake and (2) an in-person interview. Candidates will be notified by April 20, 2022 if selected to move on to the second round. Interviews will take place during the week of April 25-26, 2022. View the full description on Handshake. Contact the Undergraduate Research Office at ugrsrch@msu.edu with questions.
