UNDERGRADUATE ADVISING

Mark Your Calendars

Queering Racial Justice Summit

The Queering Racial Justice Summit is a vital two (2) day opportunity for student leaders to come together to discuss the deep connections between racial justice and LGBTQIA2S+ justice. This will be open to all students and offer conversations on inclusive leadership, White supremacy, allyship, and more. Throughout the two-days there will be raffles for prizes, keynote speakers, and the opportunity to connect with other students to coalition build and action plan. Space is limited.

Register TODAY! The Queering Racial Justice Summit is Friday, March 18th & Saturday, March 19th in the Student Services Building Room 6!

Preschool Trauma and Loss Project: PSY 371/372

Applications are being accepted for the Preschool Trauma and Loss Project. This is a 2 semester course. In the first semester, students will learn research, theories and intervention techniques to prepare them for the second semester in which they will co-lead a 16-lesson program to help preschoolers cope with trauma and loss. View the flyer for full details. If interested, contact Dr. Bogat at bogat@msu.edu for the link to complete a questionnaire.

PSY Zoom Career Panel Series

Join us for a series of Zoom panel discussions with organizations that are seeking interns, volunteers and employment positions. Panelists will share information about their organization as a group then will have a separate breakout room for individual questions as well. Each month will feature new employers so feel free to sign up for all three!
