What is PSY 382?

Purpose of the course:

Whether a student intends to start a career after graduation or attend graduate school, it is imperative that the student gain experience to make him/her more marketable in these arenas. This internship is for students who desire experience in an area related to the field of Psychology. This can be very broad because Psychology touches on many fields, but all experiences need to be approved in advance by the department to make sure that they follow in line with the goals of the program.

Goals:

1. Provide student with an opportunity to test out a career of interest.
2. Create a student network that will help foster contacts through LinkedIn.
3. Gain experience to strengthen resume and confirm a potential career.
4. Establish relationships with employers and key contacts.
5. Find out early if the field is a good match.
6. Earn credit to help toward completion of the Psychology Degree.
7. Research career goals and interests.
8. Apply what the student has learned in the classroom to make the experience more real.

Credits and Grading

PSY 382 is a “variable credit” web based course, with students taking a minimum of 6 and a maximum of 12 credits. For each credit taken, the internship requires 3 hours of work. In addition to working at the placement, all students will receive ongoing supervision to ensure the learning goals. Students will be required to complete written assignments through weekly modules and to communicate with the instructor and their classmates. Modules topics will vary. Some topics will be directly related to the internship and others will be beneficial for future career preparation.
