University Break Days– No Drop-in Advising

Enjoy your break days off this week on March 2 and 3. On these days we will not be having PSY drop-in advising hours. We hope that you all take the days off to rest and recharge for the second half of the semester.

Preschool Trauma and Loss Project: PSY 371/372

Applications are now being accepted for the Preschool Trauma and Loss Project. This is a 2 semester course. In the first semester, students will learn research, theories and intervention techniques to prepare them for the second semester in which they will co-lead a 16-lesson program to help preschoolers cope with trauma and loss. View the flyer for full details. If interested, contact Dr. Bogat at bogat@msu.edu for the link to complete a questionnaire.

MSU Adolescent Diversion Program: PSY 371/372

The Adolescent Diversion Program trains students from a variety of majors to become an advocate for a youth in the juvenile justice system. Advocates receive intensive training to create an intervention tailored to their youth's strengths, skills/abilities, and unmet needs. View this flyer and website for additional details. The program is looking for students for the Summer/Fall and Fall/Spring 2021-22 semesters. Questions contact Sean at hankiss@msu.edu.

Klump Lab RA Recruitment

Dr. Kelly Klump's Hormones and Behavior lab is currently seeking volunteer research assistants. The lab examines developmental differences in genetic, environmental, and neurobiological influences on behaviors. Dr. Klump's lab is still running during the COVID-19 pandemic, RAs in the lab will have the unique opportunity to gain research experience remotely! If you are interested in more information about the lab, you can visit their website and view this flyer. If you are interested in being a volunteer RA, please contact the Project Coordinator, Lindsay Ackerman (ackerm96@msu.edu).

Congratulations to PSY Advisor Andrea!

Andrea Groskopf and her husband Tyler are excited to welcome their son, Jacob Donald Groskopf. He was born on February 23rd. The family is doing great!
