University Undergraduate Research and Arts Forum
This year Michigan State University is celebrating the 20th anniversary of the University Undergraduate Research and Arts Forum (UURAF), which provides students with the opportunity to showcase their research, scholarship and creative activity in an academic setting. Last year nearly 950 students participated in the event. UURAF 2018 will take place on Friday, April 13 at the MSU Union from 8:30 AM - 5:00 PM. Student Registration is now open and will close on February 18.

MSU College Advising Corps Recruiting
If college was an unbelievable experience for you, turn that passion into opportunity. BECOME A COLLEGE ADVISER. MSU College Advising Corps (MSUCAC) is recruiting MSU students who will graduate in Spring 2018 (or within the last year) to serve in these full-time paid positions. Join MSUCAC for an information session, Cookies with College Advising Corps, on February 7th, James Madison 2N Lounge, 3—4 PM. The first 10 people win an MSU padfolio or other MSU merchandise! Hear from current advisers to get a better sense of how they serve high schools around the state. Review the application materials on Handshake posting #1210581, and apply by February 28th!
Social Science Exclusive Networking event
Are you a social science student who is excited to connect with influential professionals in your field? Career Services is hosting an event to help you do just that during Social Science Week! During the week of March 19, the College of Social Science (CSS) will host the first annual Social Science Week. Social Science alumni will gather on campus for three jam-packed days of activities on campus to celebrate social science at MSU. While here, some alumni are prepared to network with current students and find new talent. Take advantage of this unique opportunity by applying to attend Career Conversations, an event on March 22 that brings CSS students and alumni together for guided conversations about professional readiness. It is an invite-only event for engaged, social science students who are ready for productive networking. To apply, search for career conversations in jobs on Handshake. The deadline to submit an application is February 22nd.

MSU Athletics Student Opportunity Fair
Are you interested in working in athletics? Join MSU Athletics for the Athletics Student Job Opportunity Fair February 2nd 1:30—4 PM at Spartan Stadium Engagement Center. Local sporting industries such as Lansing United, Sport Force Parks, plus others and campus departments that work closely with athletics will be looking for motivated students interested in student employment opportunities for spring 2018, summer 2018 and fall 2018.

MSU Sexual Assault Program
The MSU Sexual Assault Program provides FREE and confidential individual counseling and support groups to MSU students who are survivors of adult sexual assault or childhood sexual abuse. They offer a variety of groups for all gender identities. For more information call 517-355-3551, or contact the individual listed under the specific group you are interested in. Students who are interested in volunteering with The MSU Sexual Assault Program can fill out a volunteer application or contact Kathryn at naberkat@msu.edu. Spring 2018 training begins Wednesday February 7th. A full training schedule is available online.
