MSU Adolescent Project
If you are considering graduate school or a career in social sciences, the Adolescent Project is perfect for you! This program involves a 2-semester commitment (PSY 371/372), and will provide you with an opportunity to work one-on-one with an adolescent from the community. These youth have been referred by the juvenile court. The courses offer you initial training in working with adolescents and ongoing supervision of the case once assigned. This class is in high demand; therefore, students are selected through an interview process. This class only accepts 35-40 students per semester. If you are interested, please contact the Director Sean Hankins at hankinss@msu.edu or visit office 236 of the PSY Building ASAP! Interviews are currently open for students primarily interested for Summer/Fall and Fall/Spring semesters. Come to the Orientation on Monday March 26th at 6PM in PSY 230 for further details!

Financing Education Abroad
Do you want to study abroad but are not sure how to pay for it? The Office for Education Abroad and the Office of Financial Aid have teamed up to offer you a workshop on finding funding for education abroad. On April 19th from 3-4 PM in Wells Hall B122 you can come learn about scholarships, financial aid and creative ways of financing study abroad! This event is being held as part of the 2018 Money Smart Week.

Preparing for Success at UURAF
First time presenting at the University Undergraduate Research and Arts Forum (UURAF)? Let our panel of seasoned UURAF presenters help you make the most of your experience. You'll get lots of great tips for printing your poster, timing your presentation, what to wear, what time to arrive, and what kinds of questions to expect on the big day. Attend this session on April 2nd from 6–7 PM in 316 Bessey Hall.
