The end of the semester is near, finish strong! There are many great programs and events going on. Be sure to click on the hyperlinks.

Business Psychology Internship Program - Apply Now!
Are you interested in completing an internship in Industrial and Organizational (I/O) Psychology or Human Resources during summer semester 2018? If so, the Business Psychology Internship Program is for you! During summer semester, students complete an internship related to I/O Psychology and enroll in the online course PSY 382. The course is variable credit. Students who enroll in 6 credits, intern 20 hours per week throughout summer semester. Applicants should possess a genuine interest in I/O Psychology, complete PSY 255 before summer 2018, be a rising junior or senior, and have a minimum 3.0 GPA. View this brochure for more program details and complete this application for admission. Applications will be accepted until November 22, 2017.

State of MI Child Welfare Division Information Table
On Tuesday, December 5th from 1:00 to 3:00pm, two representatives from the State of Michigan Child Welfare Division will host an information table outside the PSY advising office (first floor PSY building). They are interested in recruiting full-time employees and interns. Opportunities to job shadow a child welfare worker is also a possibility. Stop by their table to learn more about their organization and ways to get involved in child welfare.

College of Social Science Achievement Gala
At the 3rd annual College of Social Science Gala, March 23, 2018 from 3 -5 pm, the college will honor students who would not otherwise be acknowledged for their contributions to the College of Social Science. Three awards are presented during the Gala. Students who feel they exemplify one of the awards are encouraged to nominate themselves. You can view a list of awards and their requirements and apply no later than January 12 by 5pm to be considered.

Unpacking Your Education Abroad Experiences
Spartans Abroad Global Ambassadors (SAGA), partnered with the Office of Education Abroad and the Career Services Network, to offer a workshop that will allow students to deeply reflect on their experiences abroad and learn how to articulate their experiences in ways that are meaningful to employers. Students will also learn how to reflect their international experiences on their resume and talk about it in interviews. Event is November 15, 6– 8 PM, Kiva, Erickson Hall.
Adolescent Program Orientation Night
The Adolescent Program trains students from a variety of majors to become an advocate for a youth in the juvenile justice system. Advocates receive intensive training to create an intervention tailored to their youth’s strengths, skills/abilities, and unmet needs. Come learn more at our orientation night November 20th, 6 PM in room 230 PSY Building. View flyer and website for additional details.

EPIC Orientation Night—Brand New Course!
Check out this exciting new course launching Spring/Summer 2018! EPIC is a strength based multifaceted service learning program which will serve the youth population of young men of color in Ingham County between the ages of 10-17. View flyer for additional details. If interested in the program attend the orientation nights on November 28th & 29th, 6 PM 230 PSY Building. RSVP to Sean Hankins, hankinss@msu.edu. Refreshments provided.

Apply for the Spartan Volunteer Service Award
The Office of President Lou Anna K. Simon and the Center for Service-Learning and Civic Engagement (CSLCE) are pleased to announce a new community service award for currently enrolled MSU Students to coincide with the center’s 50th anniversary. The Michigan State University Spartan Volunteer Service Award: A Presidential Recognition will be presented to MSU students who have accrued a minimum of 100 hours of verified community engaged learning and/or volunteerism from November 1, 2016, through November 1, 2017. Recipients will be acknowledged as part of the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. events in January 2018. Eligible students must apply to be considered for recognition. Application is found on CSLCE website. Deadline for applications received at CSLCE is December 1, 2017.

Intercultural Dialogues
Intercultural Dialogues at MSU is a new initiative sponsored by the Office of Inclusion for students that works to create community by building powerful relationships across differences. The first in the series of dialogues is on race and is open to all MSU students and will meet eight times next spring. Applications are being accepted now! Space is limited, view additional details and apply by November 30.

MSU PSY Master of Arts in Program Evaluation
Graduating in May? Looking for a graduate program that will prepare you for a rewarding career helping to improve people’s lives? Consider the MSU Psychology Department’s Master of Arts in Program Evaluation. View a brief video introduction to the program evaluation field and our MA program.